24
25 Notice to All Parties:

- 26 • If you do not go to court, you may lose the case.
27

- If you lose, the court can order that your wages, money, or property be taken to pay this claim.
- Bring witnesses, receipts, and any evidence that you may need to help prove your case.
- Attorneys are not permitted to represent or advise a party in a small claims court case.
- This is an informal hearing. Only the parties, their witnesses and spokespersons who appear at no charge, and immediate family members of a party will be allowed to address the court.
- Time Extension – If one of the two parties wishes to request a time extension, the party must file a written request with the Court. The requested extension can be no longer than thirty (30) days. The Court may only grant one extension per party.
- Read this form and all pages attached to understand the claim against you and to protect your rights.

The Court Clerk shall mail to the parties notice of the hearing.

If this box is checked, the defendant filed a counterclaim and a copy of such counterclaim will accompany this notice of hearing.
